

Roles

Role	Description
the system	the system, which performs automatic tasks clerk	a person employed by the association to keep records, accounts and undertake administrative duties member	a person who joins the association member with a position	a member of the association temporarily holding a position trainer	a member who has the qualifications to teach courses